Service Center for Individuals Affected with Alzheimer’s Disease:

By statute, Puerto Rico established a Service Center for Individuals Affected with Alzheimer’s disease charged with evaluating the problems related to Alzheimer’s disease, preparing guidelines and procedures for a service coordination plan, maintaining information on organizations providing Alzheimer’s services and maintaining a continuing education program for the community to create awareness on the importance of controlling the disease.