

Where there are flowers, there are bees!

Downtown Cincinnati will be “BUZZING” with activity the morning of Saturday, Oct. 7 as the Queen Bee Marathon is “BEE-ing” run the same time as the Cincinnati Tri-State Walk to End Alzheimer’s. That said, we want you to BEE aware of road closures and provide options for parking.

Important road closures— Third Street off I-71, Eggleston Ave. and eastbound Riverside Dr. A full route map can be found at queenbeehalf.com. Options from the east:

- From I-71, take the Reading Road exit. Reading turns into Central Parkway. Follow Central Parkway to Walnut. Left on Walnut, left on Second St.
- From Columbia Parkway, take the Sixth St. exit. Left on Walnut, left on Second St.

Parking Options—

- Utilize Parking Panda to guarantee your spot at a discounted rate. Use code WTEAC10
- Become a Grand Champion (raising $1,000 or more for the cause) and get a free reserved parking pass for Sawyer Point!
- Ample parking across the bridge in Northern Kentucky (get a few extra steps on the fitbit!)
- Utilize the  app for up to the minute closures and the quickest route

Timeline for the Cincinnati Tri-State Walk

YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO ARRIVE EARLY AS NOT TO MISS A MINUTE OF THE FUN!

8:30 a.m.— Registration/Check-in and all booths open—enjoy the morning with free food, beverages, entertainment, the ALZ KidZone, Barking Lot for dogs on leashes, Caregiver Sanctuary and more!

9:40 a.m.—Opening Ceremony where YOU are a participant

10:00 a.m.—Walk begins

10:45 a.m.—Post Walk party at Sawyer Point with free Skyline Chili, hot dogs, Madison’s Gelato, Nothing Bundt Cakes, Hoist and BodyArmor energy drinks and too many giveaways to mention

FOR ADDITIONAL DETAILS VISIT

ACT.ALZ.ORG/2017CIN or CINCINNATI TRI-STATE WALK TO END ALZHEIMER’S FACEBOOK GROUP

* BEE sure to share this information with your team!