Professional Education Conference
When It's Not Alzheimer's Disease

Welcome

Keynote Speaker

Ms. Clarissa Rentz, MSN, PRN

Session 1: 8:30 - 10:00 AM

What if it isn't Alzheimer's disease?

Does an accurate diagnosis really matter in how we care for a person living with a dementing illness? Ms. Clarissa Rentz will explain why an accurate diagnosis can improve the care an individual receives. Learn about several dementias, and features that make each unique, along with strategies for care and support for affected person and family members. Ms. Rentz will discuss Vascular Dementia, Mixed Dementia, Dementia with Lewy Bodies, Behavioral Variant of Frontotemporal Lobe Degeneration, as well as several other less common dementias.

Session 2: 10:15 - 11:15 AM

Dementia Medications: Actions, Reactions and Interactions

Ms. Tracey Pierce, a Geriatric Pharmacist, will share with the audience about the treatments for Alzheimer's disease and other types of dementias, and about the reactions and interactions with other medications as well.

Session 3: 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Panel of Various Family and Professional Caregivers

Questions can be asked regarding care. Panel participants include: two family caregivers, a caregiver support group leader, a representative from the Alzheimer's Association, Northwest Ohio Chapter and from the PSA3 Area Agency on Aging.

Clarissa Rentz is a clinical nurse specialist in gerontological, mental health, and psychiatric nursing with over forty years of nursing experience in acute, hospice, and care of individuals with dementing illnesses. Ms. Rentz served as Executive Director of the Alzheimer's Association, Greater Cincinnati Chapter.

A native of Connecticut, Ms. Rentz has authored articles in a number of professional journals, including The Journal of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders and has spoken nationally and internationally.

The Greater Cincinnati Association of Professionals in Aging (APA) named Ms. Rentz its Outstanding Leader in the Field of Aging in 2006. She also received the Florence Nightingale Award for Excellence in Nursing from the University of Cincinnati in 1999.
