

Businesses like yours can have a positive impact on your community by getting more involved. Doing good for the community and partaking in a service project is also good for business. Not only will volunteering build community leaders among your organization, but it will also show that your business is trying to make a difference within your community.

Show Your Support:

- ◆ Promote your services by listing your organization on the Association Community Resource Finder.
- ◆ Increase your visibility in the community by becoming an event sponsor of the Walk to End Alzheimer's.
- ◆ Advance federal and state public policy priorities of the dementia community through The Alzheimer's Impact Movement \(AIM\).
- ◆ Host an education event or community forum for employees, external clients, and community partners.
- ◆ Share the 24/hr. helpline number to connect people with the services they need.
- ◆ Create a Walk Team to engage employees and clients in the Walk to End Alzheimer's events.
- ◆ Get creative and host your own DIY fundraiser in support of The Longest Day.
- ◆ Expand the reach of our programs in local communities and apply for volunteer roles through the Program Volunteer Community.
